Call to Worship

Leader:      Who are we that we can assume God's love?
                       Who are we that can boast of God's care?
                       Who are we to accept God's grace?
                       Who are we...?
                       Who are we...?

All:            We are his friends,
                       we are his beloved,
                       and we come to worship him.

Praise                      I rejoiced when I heard them say      CH 83

Opening Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
 hallowed be your name,
 your kingdom come,
 your will be done,
 on earth as in heaven.
 Give us today our daily bread.
 Forgive us the wrong we have done,
 as we forgive those who have wronged us.
 Save us from the time of trial
 and deliver us from evil.
 For the kingdom,
 the power and the glory are yours,
 now and forever.
 Amen.

We have instant and ground, full caffeine and decaffeinated coffee and our everyday teabags are a best seller. Not only do our tea and coffees taste good, but they do good by helping farmers get more out of their farming, by selling their coffee for a fair price and investing the Fairtrade Premium in community projects, such as schools and healthcare, and also by providing them with training to improve the quality of their crop.

Useful Information

Eco-Congregation and Christian Aid

Both Christian Aid and Eco-congregation Scotland are gearing up to persuade world leaders to agree to a new global climate change deal in Paris in December. Extreme weather will affect the poorest countries most, but we too have much to lose. Post cards will be available during and after Christian Aid Week. Please join the Campaign by signing the post cards and sending them to the Prime Minister.

Contacts

Please contact the Minister, Rev Peter Johnston, for information about Church Membership, Baptism, or being married in Church, or complete one of the cards available in the Hymn Book and hand it in as you leave.
