Opening Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us the wrong we have done,
as we forgive those who have wronged us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

Giving Birth to Laughter

Praise Old Abram was blest and Sarai was, too
 Words: Carolyn Winfrey Gillette
 Tune: Hanover (CH 127)

1. Old Abram was blest and Sarai was, too, when God called their names and said, "I choose you!"
 I'll give you descendants like stars up above—
 too many to count, and a sign of my love."
2. That old couple laughed at what God might do.
 Was what they had heard impossibly true?
 For they had no children to carry their name—
 yet God promised nations would rise out of them.
3. God promised to them a life that was new:
 a new set of names, a new future, too.
 They faithfully trusted—that husband and wife;
 soon Sarah and Abraham found a new life.
4. O God, in your love, a whole nation grew;
 you called them to be a blessing for you.
 You sent them, you send us, to be this world's light.
 Your promise still shines like the stars in the night.

Message A People of Laughter

The Offering

Offering Praise

Three strangers passing by Mamre Words: Alan Gaunt

Tune: Sussex Carol (CH 700)

1. Three strangers passing by Mamre were humbly welcomed, asked to stay.
And as they dined beneath a tree,
— this strangely awesome trinity — both Abraham and Sarah knew for these the best alone would do.
2. As Sarah listened from the door,
she heard a promise, heard before,
that very soon she'd have a boy.
She laughed and said, 'Shall I have joy?
Why, both of us are far too old!
Her secret laugh was sad and cold.
3. The Lord of promise, who had heard,
said, 'Why did Sarah doubt my word?
Why did she laugh?' But Sarah said,
'I did not laugh,' and hung her head;
The stranger smiled, 'It can't be hid:
You laughed, oh yes, I know you did.'
4. This Lord of promise comes to us,
who knows our secret sadnesses;
our bitter laughs, and deepest fears are turned to joy when God appears;
Love's Trinity, through darkest night,
will turn our sorrow to delight.

Prayer of Dedication

Please remain standing

God of promise,
 we bring to you our offering,
 remembering that we too
 are a part of your covenant promise.
 Use the gifts we bring,
 and use us in the bringing of your sacred laughter,
 your holy surprises,
 your wondrous yet-to-be.
 May we know that in our service
 and in our belonging
 within this community,
 we can bring your Kingdom that step closer.
 Amen.

The Blessing

Please remain standing

Leader: Love, laughter, living:

All: it's what God intends for each and everyone of us.

Leader: Go now to find those moments

All: of love,
 of laughter,
 of living,

Leader: and do so with the full blessing of the loving, laughing, living God, always by your side.

Sung Amen

Take Home Ideas

Having spent some time last week reflecting on taking risks and persevering, take time this week to reflect on the trust we place in God to guide us through the smooth and the turbulent times in our personal, work and church life.

Use your finger labyrinth to take a few moments each day to 'walk' through your thoughts, your hopes, your fears and your dreams. May we look to the future, trusting that God is with us and will never abandon us.

Taking risks does not give immediate outcomes; perseverance can be frustrating, but God is with us for the long haul. Are we with God for the long haul, too?

This Week's Eco Tip

Dinner from the Freezer tonight?

Planning meals ahead gives you time to let frozen food thaw fully before cooking. This means you don't need to use the microwave to defrost, and cut cooking time, which will save energy. Remember to check manufacturers instructions first.
