Call to Worship

Leader:

Jesus asks,

'Who do you say I am?'

And then on that mountain top with Peter, James and John,

a moment of wonderment,

a moment of clarification

'This is my Son, the beloved;

listen to him!'

All:

We come prepared to listen.

We come ready to see anew.

We come to worship.

Welcome and Church Notices

Opening Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us the wrong we have done,
as we forgive those who have wronged us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom,
the power and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.

This Week

Each day of this coming week look into a mirror and imagine that you are speaking to the Christ within you. Watch as the Christ in you asks the question, 'Who do you say I am?'

Take a note of any words or pictures which come into your heart and mind. If family or friends are willing, invite a different person each day to ask you the question 'Who do you say I am?' As you look at them and imagine the Christ within speaking to you, note down your response if any feelings, words or pictures come into your heart and mind.

At the end of the week look over the different ideas which came to you in answer to this well-known question. Read 'Peter's declaration about Jesus' with the new insights you gained this week as you engaged with the Christ within yourself and others.
